

NEW YORKISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25, 1868.

There has been some slight discussion about ducks and currant jelly. This, in connection with a proclamation of unwanted piety from the Mayor, reminds us that to-morrow will be THANKSGIVING DAY.

When a general winding-up will be celebrated by the base ballists.

The Atlantic Club, of Hoboken, will play with the Empire at Hoboken, in the morning.

The opera, the theatres, and the circus will be in full blast. Me thinks the day of fasting and prayer is a day of feasting and pleasure.

The stage and the ring nowadays is the popular manifestation of joyfulness in the Lord.

THE LETTER-CARRIERS of Jersey City are out in their suits of grey. They made their début on Monday morning, and were the objects of general inspection.

They ought to be paid well, for they have grown grey in the service.

THE STAFFORD PAVEMENT,
a rival of the celebrated Nicholson pavement, is being put down on Wall street opposite the Custom House.

The wood used is saturated with liquid oil, instead of being permeated with vaporized oils of tar.

It is as noiseless as the Nicholson, and as a new broom sweeps clean, especially a scaven ger's, it is expected to supersede that institution.

FIRE,
are becoming epidemic, notwithstanding the printed eloquent exhortations and exhortations of Superintendent Kennedy.

At 1 o'clock yesterday morning a portion of the Trinity Buildings burst into flame, but the damage does not amount to much.

A 15,000 VICTIMISM, to coin a word, has again been executed in Wall Street. By this time it would be supposed that Wall Street would be started at a day passing without an occurrence of this kind happening.

The delinquent is one Marsh, formerly a partner of Wm. T. Hatch & Co., and he executed his operations by tearing out some signed checks from his partner's check book.

SENT UP AT LAST
is the fate of a venerable old shoplifter, who has reached a blessed old age in the cultivation of the art of piracy to life.

Of course she was fashionably dressed; of course she was modest-looking, or you may be sure neither reporters nor magistrate would take so much interest in her.

Her conduct was endangering to "life," a charge at the suit of Hatch & Co., Sixth avenue, and she fled away with it under her shawl.

She rejoices in the alias of Annie Berg and Emma Cox, and so Annie Emma Berg-Cox was "sent up"—a fatal and mysterious mode of generalizing the tools principle of incarceration for old offenders.

BROOKLYN'S
Theatre is beginning to get finished at last. His workmen have been blasting some rocks underneath the stage and auditorium, and converting the open space thus manufactured into dressing rooms.

His new theatre will hold about 1000.

It is understood that he is busily engaged upon a scheme, but that he will not deliver it unless he hears some person from the upper circle (not to say gallery) insist upon it, unanimously.

A NEW TENOR.
Alessandro Boetto, said to have been successful in Florence, Italy, début to-night at the Academy in the Ballo in Maschera.

To-day, EVACUATION DAY, will be celebrated by a parade of the National Guard in its new uniform.

The Seventh Regiment is to be reviewed on Union Square at 11:30 A. M.

THE ERIE LITIGATION has been brought up in the Supreme Court Chambers, before Judge Sutherland, on the return of an order to show cause why Judge Barnard's late injunction should be set aside.

JUDGMENT OF THE COURT has been rendered in the ergonomic amusement by deciding the Grand Jury in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to investigate the charges made against himself in connection with the election frauds, so that he may have a chance to resign, or else that the law may have a chance to clap a stopper on such libels for evermore.
